	1-8-2007 Mr. Akhil Mishra, Panel Lawyer for the State. Perused the communication dated 19-7-2007 sent by the Judicial Magistrate, First Class, Saraipali in which the progress of Criminal Case No.948/2006 registered for offence punishable under Sections 467, 468 & 471 of the I.P.C. has been sent. Reading of the whole communication depicts the sad state of affairs on the part of the Police agency that why the documents which are relevant for the criminal case are not being seized at the time of investigation and are not being filed with the charge sheet. Apart from that, summons and warrants issued by the judicial Courts are not being served and executed by the Police agency. Therefore, the Registrar General shall take up the issue with the senior Police officers that the Court has taken this lethargic attitude of the Police very seriously and in future if any such lapse is noticed, then the concerned Police Officer will be dealt with sternly. Time asked for by the Magistrate is extended by three months from the date of receipt of a copy of this order. Sd/- L.C.BHADOO Judge
